The Joshua Mission - www.thejoshuamission.net

We do not collect or use your Personally Identifiable Information (PII), such as name, contact details, or credit card information online.

Forms filled via this website are sent by email to the designated email address and are not stored on the website.

Your PII are collected only when you register for events organised by this Mission and used only to keep you informed for your participation.

We may use your registered contact to inform you of other events we organise that may interest you. You may at anytime inform us by email to joshua@thejoshuamission.net if you do not want to receive any invitation from us, other than what you register for.

We do not collect or sell such information for marketing or sales to any other party.
