New Guided Study System for Tuesday Class

From January 2022 a New Guided Study System replaced the previous Weekly Class for Tuesday. Instead of weekly lectures all who register do self-study at their own time with periodic group sessions. Each course begins with a group session that introduces the course. They then buy it from <https://thejoshuamission.sellfy.store> to do self study at their own time. Each subsequent group session is for Q&A and discussion. The Guide for this system is on the Current Event page on www.thejoshuamission.net
